Linnea Dick

Linnea Dick, 20, of Fort Collins died May 30, 2008. She was born Nov. 23, 1987, in Fort Collins, to Donald and Opal (Snyder) Dick. Linnea was a student at Front Range Community College, aspiring toward finishing her bachelor's degree at Colorado State University. Through no fault of her own, her goals, dreams and aspirations were cut short by a horrible tragedy. She was taken from her family and friends too soon. She is greatly missed and will always be remembered and loved. Linnea was a beautiful, intelligent and caring young woman. She was a loving daughter, sister and friend. She had a vibrant spirit and a love for life that showed through in everything she did.

Linnea had a road map for her life and so many things she wanted to do before her life was taken from her. Some of her passions in life were music, dance, photography and cooking. Linnea also was an animal activist and rescued many animals in need. She loved her pets, dogs (Lage and Bentley); cats, (Desi, Kahjuh and Teensil); lizard, (Van Gogh); turtle and fish. She will be sadly missed by everyone who knew her.

She is survived by her parents, Don and Opal Dick of Fort Collins; her sister, Andrea Gliva, and husband, Eric, of Loveland; aunts and uncles, Gary Dick of Loveland, Terry Snyder and wife, Janet, of Fremont, Neb., Earl Snyder and wife, Kelly, of Katy, Texas, Irene Coplan and husband, Scott, of Applevalley, Calif., Rose Carroll and husband, Don, of Greeley; grandmother, Irma Dick of Fort Collins; grandparents, Manford and Maxine Snyder of Otis; numerous cousins; and other beloved friends. She is preceded in death by her grandfather, Theodore Dick in 2006.

A funeral service to celebrate Linnea's life will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 300 Whedbee, Fort Collins. Friends may leave condolences for the family at Carroll-Lewellen.com.

Friends may donate to the Linnea Dick Memorial Fund to benefit various animal shelters in Northern Colorado c/o Carroll-Lewellen Funeral and Cremation Services, 503 Terry St., Longmont, CO, 80501.
